This collection of post-Civil War history, a majority of which comes from long-time GAR collector Don Limpert, is displayed on the two floors of the original James Brainerd GAR Post #111 Hall in downtown Eaton Rapids. The 1886 built GAR Hall is just a short walk from GAR Island Park where annual GAR encampments were held from 1908 until 1929. We hope you will consider joining with us at one of the below sponsor levels to help chronicle and preserve the significant contribution of the GAR to our American history.
